

SOLACE together with the Women's Development Steering Group are organising a half- day conference for women in managerial roles:

'Surviving and Thriving at the Top'.
Mossley Mill Newtownabbey on Friday 12 March 2010

A half- day conference for women in the Public Sector

More information is available from

Christine Horner (T) 02890 796966 (E) Christine.horner@solace.org.uk

Diana Stewart (T) 02890 313200 (E) Diana.stewart@lgsc.org.uk

Bookings can be made through the following web site

www.lgsc.org.uk

This event is designed to highlight successful women who have personal experience of overcoming personal or professional barriers in reaching their goal. It also features organisations seen as leading in embedding organisational practices to support gender equality.

Cost - £25.00 per delegate including VAT and lunch

Surviving and Thriving at the Top
Conference for Women in the Public Sector

Surviving and Thriving at the Top Programme

- 10.00am Registration
Refreshments on arrival
- 10.30am Introduction and Welcome
Geraldine McGahey Chief Executive Larne Borough Council and SOLACE NI Gender Champion
- 10.40am 'Inspiring Leadership'

Marie Therese McGivern
Director and Chief Executive, Belfast Metropolitan College
- 11.00am Eileen Sowney
Sales Director AIB Group (UK) PLC
Speakers will provide personal insights into the challenges of leadership in the public and private sector
- 11.20am Coffee and Networking
- 12.00pm Alison Ward
Chief Executive Torfaen County Borough Council and Chair SOLACE Wales
- 12.40 Discussion
- 1.00 Closing Remarks
- 1.15pm Close and Lunch

